

Funded by
UK Government

DAC PRESENTING
ENFIELD

Dugdale Arts Centre is seeking a dynamic Pop-Up Events and Food Festival Producer

Are you passionate about the culture of food and drink? Do you love bringing people together through amazing culinary and social experiences? Join us for an exciting opportunity in Enfield's food & beverage scene!

The Enfield Culture Team is seeking a Pop-Up Events and Food Festival Producer with experience in the local food scene to deliver a pop-up food events programme at DAC. The role will involve:

- Development and delivery of a pop up food programme running from September 2024 to March 2025, and large-scale food festival in March 2025
- Reviewing DAC's current F&B offer and patron dining experience
- Leading on branding for the pop up series, festival and in venue dining
- Implementing approved F&B and dining experience recommendations at DAC
- Facilitate relationships and enlist a diverse range of quality Enfield food businesses for a programme of pop-up events at DAC
- Working with DAC management to ensure the programme compliments the DAC cultural programme
- Completing relevant administration to ensure all business are compliant to trade
- Delivering a celebratory food festival at DAC at the end of the pop up series.
- Working with the DAC team and all participants, to deliver a marketing plan which maximises the opportunity for local businesses and DAC.
- Delivering an impact report at the completion of the project.

SUPPORTED BY
MAYOR OF LONDON

ENFIELD
Council 