

---

Please don't build on our precious green fields..once they are gone they will never come back..not only for then generation (to look at and find peace and solace and beauty) but also for bird and insects and other mammals) we need to preserve these wonderful things if not why are we living? To buy more cars and other stuff which in the end means nothing and compounds to make the world a ugly place ...surely this pandemic has taught us that