

---

I want to record my objection to building on green, open space.

There are so many brown sites that need redeveloping. There is no excuse for building on green land, given the asthma consequences and also the general attraction to living in Enfield is the green, open spaces.