I object to the Council's draft local plan as follows:

policy SP PL.10.pages 80-87 and Figure3.11

Policy SP PL 9 pages 77-80 and Concept plan Figure 3.10

SA 45 page 364

As an outer London Borough Enfield has a duty to protect against the outward sprawl of London and to this end the Green Belt was established in the 1930s and amended in the 1950s. furthermore the type of building envisaged by private investors is certainly not the sort required to solve the housing needs of most.

Policy DE6 (pages 156-160) and Palace Gardens Shopping Centre page 321

I object to changing the ancient character of Enfield Town by the erection of tower blocks
