

---

Hi,

I strongly object to the plans for the crematorium on Firs Farm Wetlands. It is a much needed and used piece of recreational land. Going there has kept me sane during lockdown and we use it all the time. I do not wish to see it diminished in any way especially because of the hard work that goes into maintaining it.