

---

I want to express my total objection to the building of the crématorium in the First Farm Wetlands Park as I think there are better places where to build this type of buildings.