

---

A crematorium in the heart of first farm wetlands. This is the most insane news I have ever heard. I have always voted for Labour and I think this will end that era for all Labour voters here in North London. Communities are calling now to vote this council out in the next election. Keep your hands away from a little green space we have . We do t want to inhale smoke for rest of our lives !!!