

---

I am very much opposed to this proposal. The local community has spent a considerable amount of time and effort developing this area.

There must be a better alternative which we would urge you to consider.