

---

I object to the draft Enfield Local Plan on the grounds that, in principle, used land should be recycled in order to ensure that all brownfield sites are reused for urban regeneration prior to the development and destruction of greenfield sites.

Only when such recycling has been demonstrably achieved would I withdraw an objection to the development of greenfield land.

Regards,