

---

We strongly object to the height ie number of floors in to tower blocks that have been suggested in the local plan for the centre of Enfield and the St Anne's school development.

The Social implications of high rise dwellings has been well studied and documented over the last decade and we do not want Enfield to become a more rundown and socially deprived town than it currently is.