

---

How can the council even think of destroying the green belt in Enfield, I have lived in Enfield for fifty two years but this suggestion would be the final straw. Why take away from the residents something that has been theirs for ever. Please, please think again