

---

I strongly object to the plans to build on this area of farm land it's not necessary as London has so many unused buildings, New office blocks empty and under used high street . You must not do this to our green belt Barnet is so over developed. Holly Hill Farm must be protected .