

---

> Please count this as a vote to object to destroy one of the few green spaces we have left, which I go to regularly with my son for wildlife, plus sporting events. It would be a real loss to the area if it was no longer in use. It's a beautiful area where it's free to go and experience nature in London. Please save it.