

---

I find it incredible that after making many improvements to the community use of the Firs Farm open space that it should be proposed to remove part of it to build a Crematorium and I object. Surely there would be room in Edmonton Cemetery close to the A10 or other such places if an additional crematorium is required.