

---

I object to visitor centres and sculpture parks. We are supposed to be encouraging people to exercise i.e. walking and should retain the open countryside. Re-wilding should not be an excuse to let footpaths, pavements etc., deteriorate so that no one can use them because of the overgrown weed factor. Visitor centres and sculpture parks would only increase congestion on the roads.

---