

---

I have grave concerns about the Draft Local Plan and its impact on the Green Belt.

The surrounding countryside gives Enfield a special character and the Plan, as currently constituted, will potentially cause damage to this special character.