

---

I am writing to object to the development of this site for cremation or any other development. This is a fantastic recreation site pretty unique to Enfield. A lot of time and effort has gone into its current state and it is now an environmental asset for the community . We should be planning more of these assets- not getting rid off or entruding on the ones we have.