

This is a plea to object the above proposal. We rely on our green space and has been a very important part of our last few years living in winchmore hill. Firs farm has been particularly special during lockdown and as a key worker for the NHS I have found it a place of solace for myself and my family during such a difficult time.