

---

I wish to register my strong objection to the plans to build a crematorium at Firs Farm. It is a haven for wildlife and makes a huge contribution to the mental well being of local people. The need for such a beautiful site in the area is reflected in the massive effort by volunteers to develop it.