

---

I support the Mayor of London's position that the Green Belt should be protected in London and therefore do not support the proposals to build on Green Belt land in Enfield. I consider that the council should identify alternative approaches to meet housing need, including potentially increasing the permitted height of some new developments if this is necessary.