

---

I object to the proposal to site a crematorium on the Firs Farm site.

Having a crematorium in the middle of a community green space is a poor location and will add lots of traffic to the area and also prevent the proposed community hub.