

---

I object to another crematorium in Enfield as from all accounts it seems we are needing more burial spaces and not a crematorium so Edmonton cemetery has been enlarged.

Also the Firs farm space has just been turned into a nice wetland. It is also near schools and residences as is Church Recreation Ground.

Hoping the council will look into the need for another crematorium and other sites!