

---

I appose the idea of building on the wetlands, this is a much needed open space for all of Enfield, and after all of the hard work with restoring this land to a more natural habitat for all, it simply makes no sense at all. There are many brown field sites around the area which would be a better fit, therefore search for alternatives if this crematorium is really needed.