

---

I object on the grounds that the loss of a major supermarket will be detrimental to the local community.

The development of Sainsburys in 1986 was on the condition that the surrounding green space was retained for community use.