

---

I strongly object to the proposal to locate a crematorium on Firs Farm green space.

This will desecrate a much-loved open space which Enfield residents — and Council! — have spent much time, effort and money developing into a beautiful amenity.

Wild life is endangered as are people's mental health and the transport infrastructure.