

Green Spaces

---

As someone who is born and bred into a Protestant household, therefore with an inborn tolerance towards others, inc their due rights to burial places, however, as a citizen as well as an Enfield resident, I'd rather see us prioritising The Living first, then the dead, and of course their comfort thenceforth.

Thank you for your valuable time, and for allowing me to have my say.