

Sainsbury's Redevelopment - OPPOSE

---

I strongly oppose the redevelopment of the Sainsbury's site into housing and other uses. The loss of a major supermarket in this location will be dreadful with the resulting increase in traffic being a detrimental affect on the area, along with the loss of employment, and access to this type of place for the elderly and the wider community.

What a dreadful idea. And for what to build more cheap housing. And I work in construction industry.