

Sainsbury winchmore hill planning proposals objection

---

I strongly object to the proposed planning application where the development of homes is outlined on the Sainsbury Winchmore Hill site. The infrastructure cannot sustain the additional number of homes and people. There are currently not enough schools, doctors, police hospitals to support existing numbers, the increase of people in the Enfield area will over stretch these services.