

---

I am a local resident and love the fact that we are surrounded by beautiful countryside.

If the current plans to building on numerous greenfield sites in the locality go ahead, we will lose the tranquil open spaces of Enfield. There brownfield sites that can be built on instead. For this reason I object.