

---

I object to a crematorium being built on the popular Wetlands area which is a popular green public space for public and dog walkers and a wonderful environmental area for wild life.

It has only been open a few years since the area was made into wetlands and to now build on part of it is a terrible waste of money.