

---

The planned development of the Sainsburys site is a slap in the face to local people, and their wellbeing, health, especially mental health that will be extremely effected.