

I disagree with your statement that for residents, the scheme will be "improving their quality and access to nature, benefitting existing residents in the Borough and new residents unlike".

You will be taking away our Green Belt.

Perhaps you are referring to a proliferation of foxes and pigeons due to uncollected refuse and littering from the new developments.

Have you thought about expanding the refuse collection service to cope with 25,000 new homes?