

I wish to log an objection to the proposal for a new development of 299 houses where the current Sainsbury's is.

The loss of a major supermarket to a huge population of Palmer green and Winchmore Hill.
What are the alternatives for the elderly or people who don't have cars to get their shopping done?
Where would you suggest the people you are going to put in these 299 house, do their shopping?