

Congrats to Enfield for building on a golf course. An excellent place to build for much needed housing and a model for other areas to follow.

Please do remind the NIMBYs that their right to have an opinion on local building does not overrule others' right to have a roof over their heads.

God save Enfield!