

Hi,

I want to voice my support to the new housing near the railway line. I understand there are 3,500 people living in temporary accommodation locally and this housing will go a good way toward alleviating that and giving young people a chance to own their own homes. I can't wait for lots of new doctors, nurses and teachers to move in and alleviate pressure on local services.