

Kyfield area Planning officer

I formally object to plans to remove the "green belt" status from areas around the borough in particular the Crews Hill area so that land can be used for housing. We need these green belt areas as part of the "lungs of London" and I'm convinced that there are already ample "brownfield sites" to cater for such housing.

